Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses of Professionals,” entered May 3, 2001, the law firm of Beveridge & Diamond, P.C. (“B&D”) hereby files this Second Quarterly Interim Application of Beveridge & Diamond, P.C. for Compensation and for Reimbursement of Expenses for July 1, 2005 through September 30, 2005 (the “Second Quarterly Fee Application”).

By this Second Quarterly Fee Application, B&D seeks the interim allowance of compensation in the amount of $98,856.25 and reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses in the amount of $2,247.55 for a total of $101,103.80, or one hundred percent (100%) of all compensation and expense reimbursement requested, for the period July 1, 2005 through September 30, 2005 (the “Interim Period”). In support of this Second Quarterly Fee Application, B&D respectfully represents as follows:

Background

1. On April 2, 2001, each of the Debtors (collectively, the “Debtors”) filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”). Pursuant to Sections 1107 and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code, Debtors are continuing to operate their businesses and manage their properties and assets as debtors in possession. Since the Petition Date, the U.S. Trustee has appointed the following creditors’ committees: Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors, Official Committee of Asbestos Personal Injury Claimants, and Official Committee of Asbestos Property Damage Claimants (collectively, the “Committees”). No trustee has been appointed in Debtors’ Chapter 11 cases.

2. The Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2).

3. On April 2, 2001, the Court entered its order that Debtors' chapter 11 cases be consolidated for procedural purposes only and administered jointly.

4. By this Court's order dated May 3, 2001, Debtors were authorized to retain B&D as their counsel, effective as of the respective petition dates, with regard to the filing and prosecution of their Chapter 11 cases, and all related matters (the "Retention Order"). The Retention Order authorizes Debtors to compensate B&D at B&D's hourly rates charged for services of this type and to be reimbursed for actual and necessary out-of-pocket expenses that it incurred, subject to application to this Court in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code, the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, all applicable local rules and orders of this Court.

5. On May 3, 2001, the Court entered an Administrative Order establishing procedures for interim compensation and reimbursement of expenses of professionals. That order was amended by the Amended Administrative Order, signed on April 17, 2002. Pursuant to the procedures set forth in the Administrative Order and the Amended Administrative Order, professionals may request monthly compensation and reimbursement, and interested parties may object to such requests. If no interested party objects to a professional's request within twenty (20) days, the applicable professional may submit to the Court a certification of no objection authorizing the interim compensation and reimbursement of eighty percent (80%) of the fees requested and one hundred percent (100%) of the expenses requested, subject to the filing and approval of interim and final fee applications of the professional. The professional is also to file a quarterly interim fee application.

Monthly Fee Applications Covered Herein

6. No monthly fee applications have been filed for the Interim Period of July 1, 2005 through September 30, 2005. Detailed daily time logs describing the actual and necessary services provided by B&D during the Interim Period as well as other detailed information required to be included in fee applications are attached hereto as Exhibits A, B and C and are incorporated herein by reference.

Requested Relief

7. By this Second Quarterly Fee Application, B&D requests that the Court approve the interim allowance of compensation for professional services rendered and the reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses incurred by B&D from July 1, 2005 through September 30, 2005.²

8. At all relevant times, B&D has been a disinterested person as that term is defined in section 101(14) of the Bankruptcy Code and has not represented or held an interest adverse to the interest of Debtors.

9. All services for which compensation is requested by B&D were performed for or on behalf of Debtors and not on behalf of any committee, creditor, or other person.

10. During the Interim Period, B&D has received no promises for payment from any source for services rendered or to be rendered in any capacity whatsoever in connection with Debtors' cases. There is no agreement or understanding between B&D and any other person, other than members of the Firm, for the sharing of compensation to be received for services rendered in these cases.

11. The professional services and related expenses for which B&D requests interim allowance of compensation and reimbursement of expenses were rendered and incurred in connection with these cases in the discharge of B&D's professional responsibilities as attorneys for Debtors in their chapter 11 cases. B&D's services have been necessary and beneficial to Debtors and their estates, creditors, and other parties in interest.

WHEREFORE, B&D respectfully requests that the Court enter an order, substantially in the form attached hereto, providing that, for the period of July 1, 2005 through September 30, 2005, an allowance be made to B&D in the sum of $98,856.25 as compensation for reasonable and necessary professional services rendered to Debtors and in the sum of $2,247.55 for reimbursement of actual and necessary costs and expenses incurred, for a total of $101,103.80, that Debtors be authorized and directed to pay the B&D the outstanding amount of such sums; and for such other and further relief as this Court deems proper.
